Gail Flister Vallieres is an assistant director in GAO's Financial Management and Assurance team. As member of GAO's auditing standards staff, she works with other GAO staff in assisting the Comptroller General and his Advisory Council on Government Auditing Standards with revising and maintaining government auditing standards; promoting, interpreting and educating users of the standards; and interacting with other standard-setting bodies. She regularly speaks on Yellow Book auditing standards and other auditing topics at conferences sponsored by AGA chapters and by state CPA societies.

Prior to joining GAO, Gail was a partner with a large regional CPA firm, where she headed the firm's not-for-profit organization and A-133 audit practice section.

Gail is a member of the American Institute of CPAs, the D.C. Chapter of the Association of Government Accountants, and the Government Auditing and Accounting Committee of the Greater Washington Society of CPAs (GWSCPA). She is a past president and former board member of the Greater Washington Society of CPAs. In addition to her professional activities, she uses her skills and experience to help low-income taxpayers prepare and file their federal income tax returns, and she provides math tutoring to 7th-grade DC public schools students.
